3. TSCO has informed CAMPER that there may be dangers and hazards inherent to participants in the Program because of the activities involved and that CAMPER recognizes and appreciates that such dangers and hazards exist, and that CAMPER may sit out any activity that he/she believes to be too dangerous and/or too risky after advising a member of the TSCO staff of CAMPER’s concerns. 4. CAMPER declares that he/she is able to physically withstand and cope with the disclosed rigors of the Program with or without a reasonable accommodation. If an accommodation is needed, CAMPER will contact TSCO in advance of CAMPER participation.
